THE REVENGE OF THE WITCH

English:

According to the tradition, Siebenbrunnlein at the Laudachsee (Austria) used to be the home of despotism and a cruel king. The king lived in his castle with his seven sons, whom he dearly loved. One day, the king met an old lady who had fallen from "the Traunstein" (a mountain) and stumbled into the king's hunting area begging for help. The king refused did not allow people in his hunting area; he attacked the lady with his knife. Suddenly the earth started to shake, and the woman screamed a horrible curse. It frightened the king when he discovered the woman turned was the witch Kranawitha, who lived in the mountains of Salzkammergut and was disguised as an old lady.

The witch hit a rock with her stick seven times, and a fountain arose with every strike. Then, with a scornful smile the witch returned to the mountains. Fearing the worst, the king hurried back to his castle and his seven sons; but as he feared, the castle was empty. The witch punished the murderous king for his awful behaviour and transformed the seven sons into seven fountains. According to tradition, the king went up into the mountains and the castle was abandoned by the time he returned. Even today, during stormy nights, one can still hear the king crying and groaning. And the seven sons are still waiting, as fountains, for their release.

Nederlands:

Siebenbrunnlein am Laudachsee. Volgens de overlevering was dit het jachtgebied van een heerszuchtige en wrede koning. In het jachtslot in de buurt woonden zijn zeven zonen waarvan hij zielsveel hield. Op een dag ontmoette de koning op deze plaats een oud vrouwtje dat van de Traunstein (een berg) naar beneden gestort was, tot hier gestrompeld was en de koning om hulp smeekte. De koning echter duldde geen mensen in zijn jachtgebied, stortte zich op de oude vrouw en wilde haar met zijn jachtmes doden. Plots beefde de aarde en een schrikwekkende vloek vloeide uit de mond van de vrouw. Met ontzetting ontdekte de koning dat zij de heks Kranawitha was die in de bergen van Salzkammergut leefde en zich in een oud vrouwtje vermomd had.

De heks sloeg zeven maal met een grote stok op de rotsen en bij elke slag ontsprong er een bron. Daarna verdween de heks met een honende grijns in de bergen. Het ergste vrezend, spoedde de koning zich naar zijn jachtslot met zijn zeven zonen; het slot was echter leeg, de heks had als straf voor de moorddadige koning zijn zeven zonen in zeven bronnen omgetoverd. De koning beklom de rotsen van de Traunstein, het jachtslot kwam in verval en tot op vandaag, zo beweren althans de gemsjagers, hoort men tijdens stormachtige nachten de koning huilen en zuchten. De zeven zonen wachten nog steeds als zeven bronnen op hun verlossing.

THE REVENGE OF THE WITCH

Deutsch:

Siebenbrunnlein am Laudachsee. Nach alter Überlieferung hatte hier ein herrschsüchtiger und grausamer König sein Jagdrevier. Im nahen Jagdschloss wohnten seine sieben Söhne, die er abgöttisch liebte. Eines Tages fand der König an dieser Stelle eine alte Frau. Sie war am Traunstein abgestürzt, hatte sich bis hierher geschleppt und bat den König nun um seine Hilfe. Dieser duldet in seinem Revier keine Menschen, er stürzte sich auf die alte Frau und wollte sie mit dem Hirschfänger töten. Da erbebte plötzlich die Erde und ein furchtbarer Fluch drang aus dem Munde der Frau. Mit Entsetzen erkannte der König, dass es die Hexe Kranawitha war, die in den Bergen des Salzkammergutes wohnte und sich als alte Frau verkleidet hatte.

Siebenmal schlug die Hexe mit einem mächtigen Stock in die Felsen und bei jedem Schlag schoss ein Brunnlein hervor. Mit höhnischem Grinsen verschwand dann die Hexe im Berg. Schlimmstes ahnend eilte der König zu seinem Jagdschloss, zu seinen sieben Söhnen, doch das Schloss war leer, die Hexe hatte seine Kinder als Strafe für die Mordgier des Königs in sieben Brunnlein verzaubert. Der König stieg hinauf in die Felsen des Traunsteins, das Jagdschloss verfiel und noch heute hört man ihn, so behaupten die Gamsjäger, in stürmischen Nächten weinen und wehklagen. Die sieben Söhne aber warten heute noch als sieben Brunnlein auf ihre Erlösung.

Français: (La Revanche de la Sorcière)

Le village de Siebenbrunnlein am Laudachsee. D'après la légende cette région était le terrain de chasse d'un roi tyrannique et cruel. Dans son pavillon de chasse vivaient à l'étroit ses sept fils qu'il adorait. Un jour le roi rencontra à cet endroit une vieille femme qui était tombée du Traunstein et s'était traînée jusque-là. Elle implora son aide, mais le roi, ne tolérant personne dans son domaine de chasse, se rua vers la vieille petite femme pour la tuer avec son couteau de chasse. C'est alors que la terre se mit à trembler et la sorcière prononça une malédiction effrayante. Le roi découvrit avec horreur que cette femme n'était autre que la sorcière Kranawitha descendue des monts du Salzkammergut déguisée en petite vieille.

La sorcière frappa sept fois avec son bâton sur le roc et à chaque coup une source jaillit. Puis la sorcière disparut dans les montagnes faisant une grimace outrageante. Craignant le pire, le roi se rua vers son pavillon de chasse où vivaient ses sept fils ; la demeure était vide car pour punir le roi meurtrier la sorcière avait changé par enchantement les sept fils en sept sources. Le roi escalada les rochers du Traunstein, tandis que le pavillon de chasse tomba en ruine. D'après les chasseurs de chamois on peut entendre les gémissements et les pleurs du roi lors des nuits de tempêtes, tandis que les sept fils attendent toujours leur délivrance.
